EGYPTIAN NEWS.

An Attempt to Surprise the British Outposts.

ALEXANDRIA, July 27.—Last evening an attempt was made to surprise the British outposts. The Thirty-eighth regiment opened fire and the enemy retreated precipitately.

CHARLES AGAINST THE ENGLISH.

Intelligence has been received that Dervish Pasha, on his arrival at Constantinople, reported that after the bombardment of Alexandria the English engaged in various acts of violence against the inhabitants and pillaged and burned the town.

NOTES.

The water in the Mahmodi Canal has not fallen to any considerable extent during the last thirty-six hours.

It is circulated that the dam has burst, and a large volume of water filled the canal.

Strict inquiry and a thorough search of the soldier's prove that the reports of British soldiers having looted the place at Ramleh are entirely false.

It is believed that Arabi Pasha recently communicated from his friends in London with accurate accounts of the measures organized to oppose him.

The Khedive receives daily intelligence from the interior. Apart from the military element, the officials and respectable classes have not wavered in their allegiance to him.

EMBARKING FOR EGYPT.

General orders were issued to-day for a large portion of the expeditionary force to embark.

THE LOOTERS AT RAMLEH.

ALEXANDRIA, July 27.—A dispatch states that it has been learned from British and the Khedive's servants, ready did the looting at Ramleh Palace.

ANOTHER FIRE AT ALEXANDRIA.

A tremendous conflagration broke out in Alexandria at 2 o'clock this morning. As seen from the harbor, the fire seems to be larger than any since the bombardment. The fire is believed to have been started by incendiaries.

THE SULTAN SAYS ARABI IS A TRAITOR.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 27.—The Sultan has decided to denounce Arabi Pasha as a traitor. The Sultan received Dervish Pasha, on his return from Egypt, very coldly, and complained that he did not persuade Admiral Seymour to delay the bombardment.

THE TURKS TO OPPOSE ARABI.

CONSTANTINOPLE, July 27.—The Sultan has declared the rebellion against the conference yesterday, to dislodge Turkish troops to Egypt at once under the conditions of the identical note. The first detachment leaves in the next few days.

ARABI'S ACTIVITY.

THE BRITISH DEFEATED.

ALEXANDRIA, July 27.—An official telegram from the Rebel Government, dated July 26th, says: Armaments continue on an extensive scale. The volume is armament. Another despatch says: The British have been defeated in two engagements, leaving forty killed.

IOWA AS A WHEAT GROWING STATE.

To the end that Iowa's resources may be better understood, a late citizen of that State sends us the follow ing from the Chicago Inter-Ocean. The figures below stand as a text from which might be preached a lengthy discourse going to show that the State of Iowa is not dependent upon corn alone for life, whatever vitality she may lack, however rural her people are, and however inclined to country life. It is probably for the best that Iowa has no great cities and very great farms instead; much corn and wheat isn't generally raised in a large city; a crop of "Cain" is often the result neath the shadow of brick walls. As a national prop, a State without a large city is preferable to a green city dependent for its vitality upon its rural surroundings. A correspondent has already shown Iowa as a corn and meat producing State; now for her wheat:According to the census reports of 1860, 1870 and 1880, Illinois outranks every other State in the Union in the amount of wheat raised. According to the reports of the United States Commissioner of Agriculture, during the eleven years begin ning with 1870 and including 1880, Illinois took the first rank in quantiy of wheat raised in 1870, 1871, 1872, 1873, 1874, 1875 and 1877. Illinois held the second place every time that she was not first, except in 1877, when Minnesota led, and in 1878, when Iowa was second. The following tab le is taken from the reports of the United States Commissioners of Agriculture, shows the wheat crops of Illinois, Iowa and California, for the eleven years ending with 1880, ex pressed in bushels:

Years. Illinois. Iowa. California.

1870..... 27,718,000 29,465,000 14,175,000

1871..... 27,711,000 18,400,000 25,600,000

1872..... 27,711,000 25,300,000 25,600,000

1873..... 27,711,000 25,300,000 25,600,000

1874..... 27,711,000 25,300,000 25,600,000

1875..... 27,711,000 25,300,000 25,600,000

1876..... 27,711,000 25,300,000 25,600,000

1877..... 27,711,000 27,810,000 22,000,000

1878..... 27,711,000 30,360,000 41,900,000

1879..... 27,711,000 30,360,000 41,900,000

1880..... 26,988,757 33,178,000 33,877,600

Total... 306,394,585 311,040,000 293,863,600

The above totals show that in the total amount of wheat raised in the period designated Illinois leads, Iowa second, and California third.

ELECTRIC LIGHT.

Mr. C. H. Howland, of San Fran cisco, representing the Brush Electric Light Company, is now in this city for the purpose of introducing the light here. He is taking steps to form a stock company of the citizens of this place, they to have entire charge with out any outside influence, and the plant will be furnished on the most favorable terms. The time seems to have arrived when it is entirely practicable to adopt this light, and as it is a cheaper light, a safer and an incom parably better light than any now in use, it would seem to be the part of wisdom and common sense that it be adopted.We are in possession of a quantity of facts and figures which have com under our observation showing that the cost of the electric light is from one half to three quarters less than the service by gas. Mr. Howland thinks the suggestions urged by the Times on numerous occasions of erecting towers or masts on the hill, are very proper, and should they be carried out and supplemented by a few others in the lower part of the city, Los Angeles will be the best lighted city in the country. We hope our people will take hold of the matter with a pro gressive spirit, and that the City Coun cil will encourage the enterprise.The San Diego Sun says that Creed Haymond stated to the editor of that paper that the Southern Pacific would make a line to San Diego, running cars labeled S. P. R. R. into San Diego.
We believe it, and only wonder that the move has been thus long delayed.

FROM NEBRASKA.

Crop Prospects and Something of Their Storms.

NEW YORK, July 18, 1882.

EDITOR TIMES: Presuming that your readers of the "Golden Coast" would be interested in a brief account of mat ters and things in the "great American desert," I herewith send you a few items. Harvest has now about fairly commenced throughout the State, and such early crops as rye and barley are mostly in stock. The harvest is near enough to enable us to estimate the general opinion of farmers and others as to the yield. The area in crop is prob ably fifty per cent. of the total land area. Excepting scattered pieces in fields with chintz bugs, and a few half worked fields, the promise is universally flattering. The area in crop is prob ably fifty per cent. of the total land area. This crop is somewhat back ward, but if no adverse circumstances intervene the yield will be enormous.
The hay crop is fair, both field and pasture, and the latter is abundant and scarce. Timothy, clover and blue grass are coming into favor, and will eventu ally prove to be our most valuable crops.

JAPANESE INDEMNITY.

Williams, from the committee on the Japanese indemnity bill, reported a disagreement, and further conference was ordered.

The foundation for the College street school house, near the French hospital, is now being built. The dimensions will be twenty-by sixty feet, two stories high, with four rooms. It will cost about $6500. Messrs. Wood & Cox are the contractors.

A marriage license was granted in the County Clerk's Office yesterday, the high contracting parties being Robert Marley and Maggie Brown. We are unable to announce the date of the occasion, as there was no record of this character on the Recorder's book.

A pair of horses attached to a wagon loaded with hay, started on their own account, yesterday, from near the corner of Spring and First streets, but were incontinently checked in an incipient mad career by Master Vick Beck. Good boy!

In the eye of a mountaineer, the price of firewood in Los Angeles is amazingly elevated. Average cheneau is sold at $5 per cord; oak, $9; willow, about $6.50. It is the cost of transportation, doubtless, which makes 100 per cent. difference in the price of fuel as between here and San Bernardino.

The Peppers opium case is difficult to smoke out. The defendant, being up for sentence yesterday, got $30 or thirty days—all money and all time. Peppers can't complain of want of latitude in the sentence—both time and money to choose from. R. F. Del Valle appeared for him and moved a new trial; this being denied, an appeal was taken.

Mr. T. A. Cord, of Pasadena, late of San Bernardino, gives a very flattering account of business in and about Pasadena. He is a very successful contractor and builder, having lately put up a large three-story house for Mr. Bayard Arnold, late of Boston, and is now working on a large two-story dwelling for Mr. Hall, both near Pasadena limits. His work shows for itself and gains him great credit.

Few who have lived any length of time in Los Angeles county care to reside anywhere else. An instance in mind is the case of Mr. Douglas Walker, of Artesia, who, last spring, shipped his large hand of sheep to Texas, sold them, and then thought of "Auld Scotia," the land of his birth, but he could not remain away from the locality of his success in business, and we find him again fast among us.

La Fermate's Budget—An Elegant Little Poem.

A Birth-day Party—Social—Personal—A Plucky Woman—Lincoln Moving—Doesn't Want to be Addressed "Ego."

On the evening of the 19th inst., there was a select party given at the Johnson place. The occasion was the birthday of Miss Alice, second daughter of Joshua McElvey, Esq., recently of Pawtucket, Rhode Island. The guests were Misses Clancy, Witham, Hart, Hale, Webster, McCay and Jessie McCoy. Messrs. Hitchcock, Sturgis, Harris, Howgh, Coseboom, Keefaber, McCoy and Capt. McElvey. Mesdames Hitchcock, Sturgis and the reporter. At 10:30 a sumptuous collation was served, to which all did justice. Miss Alice received some elegant presents; and your correspondent composed the following poem for the occasion:

INSCRIBED TO MY FRIEND, MISS ALICE MC'ELVEY, ON HER BIRTHDAY.

Would I were Euterpe, that I might indite

A sweet lyric poem to read here-to-night;

Each a bright pearl that fell from their lips,

And in memory's casket well should recline.

Then deify in rhyme should I weave every

And I should know that for her I had wrought.

But alas! I'm only a mortal at most,

Who might be a poet, but am only a poet,

Thou art a poet, and I am only a poet,

And thou art wise, and I am only a poet.

Then what can I say? One as humble as I

In the great field of thought never may see.

They are thy paramour, I am only a poet,

And still thy beauties I never may see.

Arise, then, and let me be thy poet,

And let me be thy poet, and thou my Muse.
